ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given, that letters of Administration on the estate of Laura Parker deceased, were granted to the undersigned on the 28th day of March 1913, by the probate court of Lafayette County, Missouri. All persons having claims against said estate are required to exhibit them for allowance to the undersigned within six months after the date of said letters, or they may be precluded from any benefit of said estate; and if such claims be not exhibited within one year from the date of the last insertion of this publication they will be forever barred.

This 28th day of March 1913. FRANK T. BOLTON, Administrator.

WHY THE RECEIPTS FELL OFF

Happening That Had Swelled Them the Year Before Was Not Repeated, and Not Likely to Be.

The recent upheavals in Western Union circles which led to the injection of numerous railroad men into the commercial telegraph field on the Pacific coast led to some funny episodes while the railroaders were learning the new business. One Los Angeles official, who, however weak he might be in other matters, was strong as horse radish on red tape, telegraphed the manager of a desert telegraph office forty miles from any other office: "September a year ago your receipts were $4.95, last September only 25 cents; how do you account for losing 90 per cent. of the business?" and received full information in the following reply: "The $4.95 business last year was received from our section foreman, who sent telegrams to everybody he knew announcing the arrival of a baby at his house. This September his wife did not have any baby, and he says that next time she does he intends to write letters about it."—Los Angeles Times.

DON'T JUDGE BY EXTERNALS

That Physical Appearances or Mannerisms Denote Much Is Denied by Writer in Woman's World.

Place no dependence upon the common marks of character as shown by physical appearances or mannerisms. One of the strongest men mentally and spiritually I ever met had a "weak chin." And a "square jaw" is as likely to belong to a brute as to a brave man.

One of the most delicate, clever and gentle writers in America is a fat, frowsy and very common-looking woman.

I know another woman with a loud, disagreeable voice, and she is not at all what that might imply, but is as sweet and modest as one could wish. It is just an unfortunate way.

Discount all the usual signs of a piercing eye, a soft voice, a shy manner, an imposing presence, a viciously low forehead, a shifting glance and all that; judgments formed on these things are pretty sure to be wrong.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

JUDGE FINES A WATCH.

Judge T. H. Brents of the superior court at Walla Walla, Wash., who recently fined an automobile for making a juror late, has imposed a $10 fine on a watch which prevented Gus Harras, defendant in a case, from reaching court in time.

"Time's money, and we'll let the watch pay it," said the judge. Harras was sued by Pete Hanson, who asked $1,000 for false imprisonment. Harras having had him arrested three years ago for trespassing. After four hours the jury decided no damages were due.

ODD BITS IN THE NEWS.

"The bride," says an Australian paper, "appeared in a smart white frock of pale blue linen."

A newspaper headline runs: "Mother of eighty complains." Don't wonder at it. Our own missus finds even one troublesome.

The latest Irish bull: "It looks as if she had saddled herself with a veritable white elephant."—Dublin paper.

A Missouri lawyer, in pleading a wife's divorce case, stated that her husband "undertook to poison her without just cause."

MOTHER WAS GAME.

His Sister—His nose seems broken.

His Fiancee—And he's lost his front teeth.

His Mother—But he didn't drop the ball!—Life.

WHERE THE MONEY IS.

"Is there any money in poultry?" "You can get pretty good prices for chickens killed by passing autos, but you have to keep a sharp lookout."
